GOVERNMENT OF HIMACHAL PRADESH

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION DEPARTMENT

(C SECTION)

NOTIFICATION

Simla-2, the 7th September, 1971

No. 2-11/71-GA-C.—In exercise of the powers vested in him under section 13 of the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly Speaker's and Deputy Speaker's Salaries Act, 1971 (4 of 1971), read with section 10 thereof, the Governor of Himachal Pradesh is pleased to make the following rules:—

1. These rules may be called the Himachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly Speaker's and Deputy Speaker's Travelling Allowance Rules, 1971.

2. They shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the 25th January, 1971.

3. The Speaker shall be entitled to travelling allowance for journeys mentioned below on the same scale as is admissible to a Minister:—

- (a) from his place of residence to the venue of the Assembly when proceeding to join office and back to his normal place of residence after relinquishment of office;
- (b) to attend a Conference or a Committee of Presiding Officers of Legislative Bodies in India or for a visit to the venue of some other Legislative Body to study its procedure, working and organisation:

Provided that for tours undertaken by him outside India in the discharge of his official duties, he shall be entitled to such travelling and daily allowances as the State Government may, in each case determine;

- (c) to attend or participate in any public function or any function arranged by the State or Central Government or any local or statutory authority or to receive a civic address or for attending meetings connected with, or for visiting sites or places of developmental or constructive activities undertaken by the State or Central Government or by any body financed partly or wholly by the State or Central Government;
- (d) in the event of a change of the headquarters of the Assembly a journey from his home, or from the old headquarters of the Assembly in case he is residing there at the time of the move, to the new headquarters of the Assembly;
- (e) (i) from Simla to his constituency or usual place of residence at the end of each session of the Assembly and for the return journey to Simla at the beginning of the next session;
- (ii) from Simla to his constituency or usual place of residence when the Assembly is adjourned for two or more days and for the return journey after the period of break and from Simla to his constituency or usual place of residence and back once a month in off session periods; and
- (f) such other journeys as may be certified by the Speaker to have been performed in the discharge of duty.

4. The Speaker shall be entitled to halting allowance at the same rates and on the same conditions as daily allowance to a Minister.

5. An advance may be made to the Speaker, proceeding on a long and expensive tour, of an amount sufficient to cover his personal travelling expenses, subject to adjustment, on completion of the tour or the 31st day of March, whichever is earlier, against the amount of travelling allowance admissible to him.

6. Travelling allowance/halting allowance to Deputy Speaker.—(1) The Deputy Speaker shall be entitled to travelling allowance for journeys mentioned below on the same scale as is admissible to a Deputy Minister:—

- (a) from his place of residence to the venue of the Assembly when proceeding to join office and back to his normal place of residence after relinquishment of office;
- (b) (i) from Simla to his constituency or usual place of residence at the end of each session of the Assembly and for the return journey to Simla at the beginning of the next session;
- (ii) from Simla to his constituency or usual place of residence when the Assembly is adjourned for two or more days and for the return journey after the period of break and from Simla to his constituency or usual place of residence and back once a month in off session periods;

(c) for journeys performed by him under the orders of the Speaker:—

(i) to attend the Conference of Presiding Officers of Legislative Bodies in India; and

(ii) for the purpose of attending to any other business connected with his duties as Deputy Speaker.

(2) The Speaker may also allow the Deputy Speaker to travel by air to save time, in which case he shall be entitled to travelling allowance for journey by air on the same scale as is admissible to a Deputy Minister.

(3) The Deputy Speaker shall be entitled to halting allowance at the same rates and on the same conditions as daily allowance to a Deputy Minister.

(4) The Speaker shall be the Controlling Officer for the purpose of countersigning the Travelling Allowance Bills of the Deputy Speaker.

7. An advance may be made to the Deputy Speaker, proceeding on a long and expensive tour, of an amount sufficient to cover his personal travelling expenses, subject to adjustment on completion of the tour or the 31st day of March, whichever is earlier, against the amount of travelling allowance admissible to him.

K. N. CHANNA.

Chief Secretary.
